1. The petitioner has filed this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.68/2025 registered at Police Station Raisinghnagar, District Ganganagar for offence under Sections 8/18, 21, 25, 29 of NDPS Act and Section 3/25 of Arms Act.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that only allegation levelled against the present petitioner is that he supplied the recovered contraband to the co-accused Aashish and Simran. He again submits that as per the prosecution story, contraband weighing 68.86 grams Smack & 57.60 grams Smack, which are below the commercial quantity, have been recovered from the conscious possession of the co-accused Aashish and Simran, respectively. The co-accused Aashish and Simran along with one other co-accused have been given the benefit of bail on 04.07.2025 & 27.06.2025, respectively. The petitioner is behind the bars since 31.01.2026 with no criminal past. The trial of the case may take considerable time and no further custodial interrogation is required. Hence, the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Sonu Singh S/o Krishan Singh, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
