Order

09/03/2026

1. The instant bail application has been filed by the applicant under Section 483 BNSS. The applicant has been arrested in connection with FIR No. 01/2026 registered at Police Station Dhamotar, District Pratapgarh for the offence(s) under Section 64 (1) BNS.
2. Learned counsel for the accused-applicants submits that the applicant has been falsely implicated in the case. Challan has already been filed. He further submits that the accused and the prosecutrix are major and neighbour. According to learned counsel, the allegation of committing rape on the prosecutrix by the applicant is not proved from the statement of the prosecutrix recorded under Section 183 BNSS. The applicant is behind the bars. The trial may take long time to conclude. Thus, learned counsel submitted that the applicant may be enlarged on bail.

3. Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor vehemently opposed the bail application.

4. Considering the arguments advanced by the counsel for the parties, and the statement of the prosecutrix recorded under Section 183 BNSS and looking to the overall facts and circumstances of the case, without commenting on the merits and demerits of the case, this court deems it just and proper to enlarge the accused-applicant on bail.

5. Accordingly, the bail application under Section 483 BNSS is allowed and it is ordered that the accused-applicant Gorilal S/o Narayan arrested in connection with aforesaid FIR shall be enlarged on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.1,00,000/- with two sureties of Rs.50,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned lower court for his appearance before the court concerned on all the dates of hearing as and when called upon to do so.
