Judgment / Order

09/02/2026

1. The petitioner has filed this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No. 787/2025 registered at Police Station Hanumangarh Town, District Hanumangarh for offences under Sections 331(4), 305(A) of BNS.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that the petitioner has not been named in the FIR, though he has been charged for stealing the silver articles from the temple. Four cases have been reported against him but he is on bail in all these cases. He again submits that the petitioner is behind the bars since 12.12.2025 and charge-sheet has been filed. The trial of the case may take considerable time and no further custodial interrogation is required, hence the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Vedprakash @ Vediya S/o Subhash, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bail bond in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs. 25,000/- each of the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
