Order

10/02/2026

1. The petitioner, who is the husband of the missing woman, has approached this Court out of grave concern for his wife's safety and well-being. By way of the present writ petition, he seeks the issuance of an appropriate writ in the nature of habeas corpus, or any other suitable order or direction, calling upon the official respondents to trace her whereabouts and produce her before this Court.
2. The case set up by the petitioner in his affidavit is that his wife has been missing and that, despite submitting a representation to the authorities, no effective action has been taken. However, there is neither any specific allegation nor any material placed on record to demonstrate that she is in illegal detention at the instance of any person against her will so as to justify the issuance of a writ of habeas corpus. In the absence of such pleadings, the present matter appears to be a case of a missing person.

3. Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to pursue appropriate remedies in accordance with law, including the lodging of a missing person's report. The official respondents are expected to take necessary action on the representation already submitted by the petitioner in accordance with law.
