Order

24/02/2026

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The present habeas corpus petition has been filed by the petitioner, who claims to be husband of the corpus Mst. 'G' as they have solemnized marriage. It has been stated that the corpus Mst. 'G' is in the illegal detention of the respondent Nos.6 and 7.

In pursuance of the directions issued by this Court, the corpus Mst. 'G' has been produced before us.

We have conferred with the corpus. She has stated that she is 20 years of age and has studied upto Bachelor of Arts. She understands her well-being quite well. She has stated that she is not in any illegal detention of the private respondents, who are her parents. She has stated that she does not want to go with the present petitioner. It is also stated that she is living with her parents on her own free will.

We have considered the submissions made before us.

In the considered opinion of this Court, the corpus Mst. 'G' is a mature educated girl and understands her well-being quite well. Since she is living with her parents on her own free will, she is not in any illegal detention.

There is no force in the present habeas corpus petition, the same is, hereby, dismissed.

However, in pursuance of the order dated 12.02.2026, the amount of Rs.25,000/- deposited by the petitioner is forfeited and the demand draft annexed with the present petition be deposited in the name of Child Secretariat (Bank Account No.50200115050862, IFSC – HDFC0005113).
