Order

25/02/2026

1. The petitioner has preferred this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.387/2024 registered at Police Station Anoopgarh, District Sri Ganganagar for offence under Sections 420, 406 & 120-B of IPC.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that the petitioner has not been named in the FIR, and the contract to perform the work, as mentioned in the FIR, was given to co-accused Narender Godara. The petitioner was working under the direction of the said Narender Godara. It is argued that it is co-accused Narender Godara who has privity of contract with the Government. It is also contended that the offences are triable by Magistrate. He again submits that the petitioner is behind the bars since 29.01.2026. Though, three cases have been reported against him, but he is on bail in all these cases. The trial of the case may take considerable time and no further custodial interrogation is required, hence the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Vishram Meena @ Vishraram Meena S/o Prahlad, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bail bond in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs. 25,000/- each of the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
