1. The petitioner has filed this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.17/2026 registered at Police Station Asop, District Jodhpur Rural for offence under Sections 8/22 of NDPS Act.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that recovered contraband is 02.83 grams of MD, which is below the commercial quantity. The petitioner is behind the bars since 07.02.2026. Though eight criminal antecedents of different nature have been registered against the present petitioner, out of which he has been acquitted in one case and convicted in another, in the remaining cases he is still facing trial. The trial of the case may take considerable time and no further custodial interrogation is required. Hence, the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Jitendra S/o Om Prakash, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
