1. The petitioner has filed this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.256/2021 registered at Police Station New Mandi Gharsana, District Sri Ganganagar for offence under Sections 29 of NDPS Act.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that as per the prosecution story, 11 Kg. poppy-straw has been recovered from the conscious possession of the co-accused Prem Kumar which is below commercial quantity. He again submits that the co-accused Prem Kumar got the benefit of bail by a Coordinate Bench of this Court on 07.09.2021. The allegation against the petitioner is limited to the extent of supplier of the above contraband. He also submits that there is one antecedent of different nature against the petitioner and he is behind the bars since 10.02.2025 and charge-sheet has been filed. The trial of the case may take considerable time and no further custodial interrogation is required, hence the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Mahiram S/o Sukhram, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
