Order

13/02/2026

1. Petition herein arises, inter alia, out of the inaction on the part of the respondents in not according the correct service and notional benefits to the petitioners.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner at the outset submits that qua the aforesaid grievance, the petitioner may be granted liberty to file a fresh representation before the competent authority and the same be decided by passing appropriate administrative orders, in accordance with law.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner also relies on order/judgment in Nand Kishore Sharma & Ors. v. The State of Rajasthan & Ors.: S.B. Civil Writ Petition No.12109/2018, decided on 18.07.2018 at Jaipur Bench and submits that the respondents may be directed to consider the representation of the petitioner in light of the aforesaid judgment.

4. Request seems to be fair.

5. Given the nature of order which is being passed, no prejudice would be caused to the respondents and, therefore, the requirement of issuance of notice is dispensed with as no return is required to be filed by them.

6. In the aforesaid premise, the writ petition is disposed of with a liberty to the petitioner to file a fresh representation, which shall be gone into by the competent authority and appropriate administrative order shall be passed in accordance with law.

7. Needless to say that the competent authority shall go through the judgment relied upon by learned counsel for the petitioner as mentioned hereinabove and apply its independent mind on the applicability of the same before passing any order.

8. Needful be done as expeditiously as possible.
