1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that during the pendency of the instant criminal misc. petition, the parties have entered into a compromise and have decided to settled their dispute amicably in the spirit of Lok Adalat. He further submits that in furtherance of the compromise between the parties, a petition under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act seeking mutual divorce has also been filed by the petitioner and the respondent before the competent Criminal Court.
2. In view of the aforesaid, nothing remains to be adjudicated upon in the present criminal misc. petition.
3. Accordingly, the present criminal misc. petition is dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.
