Order

23/02/2026

1. The petitioner has preferred this writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of necessary directions to the official respondents to provide adequate security and protection to the petitioner on the ground that he is facing grave threat of life and liberty at the hands of respondent No.4.
2. This Court is of the view that Article 21 of the Constitution of India provides for right to life, limb and personal liberty under the ambit of fundamental rights and any threat to the same amounts to violation of the same. Being the citizens of independent India, the petitioner has a right to reside with honour and dignity. Therefore, he has sought the protection from the hands of private respondents and he also sought direction to respondents to provide them protection.

3. After perusing the record of the case, this Court is neither going into the niceties of the matter, as it is the subject matter of investigation before the Investigating Officer, and is concerned only about the protection of life, limb and liberty as guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution of India.
4. Since the petitioner apprehend threat to their right of life and liberty, this Court is of the considered view that the petitioner has every right to seek the protection of their life, limb and liberty.
5. In this view of the matter, the instant criminal writ petition is disposed of with the direction to the petitioner to appear before the concerned Superintendent of Police along with appropriate representation regarding their grievance. The concerned Superintendent of Police shall in turn hear the grievance of the petitioner, and after analyzing the threat perceptions, if necessitated, may pass necessary orders to provide adequate security and protection to the petitioner.
6. It is made clear that any observation in this order shall not affect any criminal and civil proceedings initiated against the petitioner.
7. Stay petition also stands disposed of.
