Order

02/05/2023

1. As per the office report dated 27.04.2023, the notice has been received by the respondent No.2. However, no one has put in appearance to represent him.
2. Learned Public Prosecutor seeks time to file reply.
3. Heard on the interim relief.
4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there was no immediate or instant cause for which it can be said that the deceased was instigated by the petitioner to end her life. It is an admitted fact that the deceased committed suicide at her parent's home. The possibility that she did not want to marry with the petitioner and she was forced by her parents and which had perturbed her and she committed suicide cannot be ruled out.
5. Upon consideration of the submission and looking to the facts and circumstances of the case, this court feels persuaded to pass an interim order. Accordingly, it is ordered that the matter be listed after four weeks to see the response of the respondents.

6. In the meanwhile, further proceedings in Sessions Case No.45/2021 (State Vs. Rajkamal) pending in the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Merta shall remain stayed.
