Order

23/02/2026

1. After arguing to some extent, the learned counsel for the petitioners seeks withdrawal of the instant petition but at the same time beseeches for issuance of some directions to protect their statutory and fundamental rights.
2. Accordingly, the instant writ petition is disposed of without touching the merits of the case.
3. Stay petition also stands disposed of.
4. The petitioners are better advised to appear before the trial Court on the given date and to submit their case as to how they are not amenable to be prosecuted under the charged provisions. Upon doing so, the learned trial Court shall hear the parties and would pass an appropriate order strictly in accordance with law.
5. Nothing would preclude the petitioners to approach this Court again if grievances would persist still whereafter.
