1. The petitioner has filed this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.114/2025 registered at Police Station Sandwa, District Churu for offence under Sections 115(2), 126(2), 109(1) & 189(2) of BNS, 2023.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that as per the prosecution story as well as the medical report, the alleged injury caused to the victim Hadmanram was on the right and left leg which is not on vital part of the body and the Investigating Officer in the complaint has erroneously obtained the medical report for the injuries which are not on the vital part as dangerous to life. He again submits that as per the statement of the victim and injured and as per the FIR, no specific act has been attributed to the petitioner and only omnibus allegation has been levelled against him. Counsel further submits that co-accused Bhagwannath has granted bail on 09.02.2026 by this Court. He also submits that the petitioner is behind the bars since 10.01.2026 and charge-sheet has been filed. The trial of the case may take considerable time and no further custodial interrogation is required, hence the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Thannath S/o Mohannath, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
