1. The petitioner has filed this bail application under Section 483 of BNSS in FIR No.471/2023 registered at Police Station Nimbahera, District Chittorgarh for offence under Sections 8/15, 29 of NDPS Act.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. He further submits that recovered contraband is 42.620 Kilograms Poppy Straw, which is below the commercial quantity and has been recovered from the conscious possession of the co-accused Pukhraj. He again submits that the present petitioner is only the supplier of the recovered contraband to the co-accused Pukhraj. The co-accused Pukhraj has been granted benefit of bail on 05.10.2023. He again submits that the petitioner is behind the bars since 14.11.2024 with one antecedent of similar nature. The trial of the case may take considerable time and no further custodial interrogation is required. Hence, the bail application of the petitioner may be allowed.

4. Learned Public Prosecutor has vehemently opposed the bail application.

5. On consideration of the rival submissions and material available on record and in the light of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, I am inclined to grant benefit of bail to the petitioner.

6. Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is directed that the petitioner Ajay S/o Bhanwar Lal Nayak, be released on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties in the sum of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court with the stipulation that he shall appear before that Court on all subsequent dates of hearing till conclusion of the trial.
