Order

18/04/2026

1. The writ petition has been preferred by the petitioner claiming the following reliefs:-

“It is, therefore, most humbly and respectfully prayed that this writ petition may kindly be allowed and by an appropriate writ, order or direction:

(i) the impugned order dated 19.02.2026 (Ann.11) passed by learned Addl. District Judge No. 1, Nohar District Hanumangarh may kindly be quashed and set aside.

(ii) the stay application under Order 41 Rule 5 CPC filed the petitioners may kindly be ordered to be allowed and effect and operation of impugned judgment and decree dated 29.01.2026 Anted passed by learned Civil Judge (S.D.), Nohar District may kindly be stayed till final decision of appeal.

(iii) Any other appropriate writ, order or direction which this Hon'ble Court deems just and proper may kindly be passed in favour of the petitioners.”

2. At the outset, learned counsel for the respondents submits that he has no objection if the writ petition preferred by the petitioner is allowed. He further makes a limited prayer that the learned Additional District Judge No.1, Nohar, District Hanumangarh, be directed to decide the appeal pending before it expeditiously.

3. In view of the aforesaid limited submission, the present writ petition is allowed. The impugned order dated 19.02.2026 is quashed and set aside. The learned Appellate Court is directed to decide the appeal expeditiously, preferably within a period of six months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order, strictly in accordance with law, without being prejudiced by any observations made in the earlier order dated 19.02.2026.

4. Till six months, the parties shall maintain status quo, as it exists today, with regard to the disputed land/property in question.

5. The stay petition as well as all pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
