Order

27/03/2026

1. None appears on behalf of the petitioners.
2. However, since we have already gone through the file, we may like to make it clear that in terms of the para 4 of the impugned order dated 03.02.2025, the Division Bench of this Court in D.B. Civil Writ Petition No.2654/2025 held that respondent – Regional Forest Officer therein was required to issue notice of hearing to the affected parties, in case, any of them was aggrieved and had filed any representation before the competent authority.

3. It so appears that no such notice has been issued.

3. Be that as it may, the respondent – Regional Forest Officer herein, may verify the same and if so warranted, he would issue fresh notice to the affected parties provided they had preferred any representation before him after passing of the order by the Division Bench.

4. With these observations, the present contempt petition stands dismissed.

5. Any pending applications stand disposed of.
