HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE FARJAND ALI
Order

28/03/2026

1. By way of the present civil writ petition, the petitioner has challenged the order dated 09.02.2026 passed by the learned Additional District Collector, Nagaur, whereby an ad interim order under Section 212 of the Rajasthan Tenancy Act has been issued restraining the petitioner from alienating the subject property in any manner till the next date of hearing.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.
3. It is submitted that the parties were directed to maintain status quo with respect to the land comprised in two khasra numbers. The petitioner, being aggrieved by the aforesaid order, preferred a revision petition before the Board of Revenue; however, vide order dated 18.02.2026, the said revision petition came to be dismissed on the ground of maintainability, observing that the impugned order was interlocutory in nature.
4. After arguing the matter to some extent, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks withdrawal of the present writ petition and prays for a direction for expeditious disposal of the proceedings pending before the trial Court.
5. Accordingly, the present writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
6. Stay petition also stands dismissed.
7. The learned Additional District Collector, Nagaur, is directed to decide the application under Section 212 of the Rajasthan Tenancy Act as well as main proceedings under Section 89 of the Rajasthan Land Revenue Act expeditiously, preferably within a period of sixty days from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order, in accordance with law and on the basis of the material available on record.
