The petitioner, who was selected and appointed at the Teacher level-2 under the category of General EWS, has been adversely affected by the impugned orders.

were found to be not tenable without following the appropriate procedure.

At this juncture, Mr. Nitesh Mathur, AGC, has marked his appearance. He submitted that in the instant petition Department of Personnel & Training (DOPT) is a necessary party and they were impleaded the ex-parte order passed. He further submitted that now it is under the categories such as physically handicapped and EWS etc. by playing fraud, recruitment benefits were allegedly made. Hence, the same be impleaded as a necessary party.

Having heard the submissions, this Court directs the learned counsel for the petitioner to implead DoPT as a party respondent in the instant petition; file an amended cause title; and supply an advance copy of relevant documents in the office of Mr. Nitesh Mathur, AGC.

The names of Mr. Nitesh Mathur, AGC, and Mr. Rajesh Panwar, learned AAG, be shown in the cause list as counsel for the respondents.
