26/02/2026

1. Post admission of the present appeal, the matter was listed on 23.01.2026, wherein nobody appeared, and again on 24.01.2026, wherein also nobody appeared. The matter was thereafter listed on 27.01.2026, wherein again nobody appeared. Today also, learned counsel for the appellant did not appear in the first round and even in the second round. Thus, it is clear that the appellant is not interested in pursuing the appeal.
2. Unfortunately, the Union of India, in spite of having a battery of counsels, is not been represented, as nobody has appeared on its behalf.

3. Accordingly, the present Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution.
