Order

13/03/2026

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that against the order of attachment passed by the learned SDM Hanumangarh, a revision was preferred by respondent No. 3. He submits that the revisional Court remanded the matter back for fresh consideration before the SDM after setting aside the order. He makes a limited prayer that although the matter has been remanded, nevertheless, once the attachment order was passed and thereafter the matter was remanded by the learned Sessions Court, the status quo regarding the property should have been maintained until the disposal of the matter remanded back and a fresh decision by the SDM.

Issue notice.

Learned Public Prosecutor accepts notice on behalf of respondent Nos. 1 and 2.

Let notice be issued to respondent No. 3, returnable within four weeks.

In the meanwhile, the order dated 02.12.2025 passed by the SDM shall remain in force only until the disposal of the matter which has been remanded back by the Sessions Court on 21.02.2026.

The SDM is expected to decide the case expeditiously; otherwise, the same may further lead to a breach of peace.
