Order

09/03/2026

1. The petitioners have preferred the present criminal writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, 1950 for issuance of necessary directions to the respondent authorities to provide adequate security and protection to them, as they are facing grave threat to their life and liberty at the hands of private respondent(s)/their relatives.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are above 18 years of age and they are residing in Live-in relationship together. But such live-in relationship is not acceptable to their family members/society and they have threatened them of dire consequences. He prays that adequate police protection be provided to them.

3. Though no specific instance or imminent threat has been pleaded but considering the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioners and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is of the opinion that if the petitioners are having any apprehension or threat perception about their life and liberty from their relatives, they may move appropriate representation before the Superintendent of Police, Udaipur (Rajasthan) indicating their concern with the name(s) of probable assailants. If any such representation is moved by the petitioners, the Superintendent of Police, Udaipur (Rajasthan) shall consider the same and after analyzing the factual situation pass necessary orders or take action to ward off any untoward incident.

4. It is hereby clarified that this order may not be construed to be a validation of marriage/relationship and proof of their age. Any observation made herein shall not affect any criminal or civil proceedings initiated against the petitioners, at the instance of their relatives.

5. With these observations, this criminal writ petition is disposed of.
