Order

23/03/2026

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the issue involved in present writ petition is squarely covered by judgment dated 06.07.2020 passed in the case of Jitendra Kumar Tailor vs. State of Rajasthan : S.B.C.W.P. No. 1952/2019, which, in turn, relied upon order dated 09.03.2017 passed in the case of Roshan lal Saini Vs. State & Ors. : S.B.C.W. P. No. 18056/2015.
2. In the case of Jitendra Kumar Tailor (Supra), Co-ordinate Bench of this Court inter alia directed as under:-

" In this view of the matter, I deem it just and appropriate to dispose of this writ petition petition with a direction to the State Govt. to decide the matter at the earliest to facilitate issuance of requisite order of accordance with law. The requisite exercise be undertaken by the State Govt. at the earliest, preferably within a period of four weeks from the date presentation of this Court"

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner seeks limited indulgence of this Court to direct respondent authorities to consider the request / representation of petitioner in accordance with directions contained in the judgment passed in the case of Jitendra Kumar Tailor (Supra).

4. Looking to the limited submissions made, this Court deems its appropriate to dispose of instant writ petition without issuing notice to respondent, with directions to respondent No. 2 to decide the representation of petitioner strictly in accordance with law and in light of directions contained in judgment passed in the case of Jitendra Kumar Tailor (Supra), within a period of 30 days from the receipt of said representation.

5. With these observations, present writ petition is hereby disposed of.

6. Stay application and all other pending application, if any, also stand disposed of.
