Accordingly, learned counsel prays that the applicant be enlarged on bail.

Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor opposed the bail application.

This Court has considered the arguments advanced by learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record. Further, that the contraband poppy husk weighing 74 kg is recovered from main accused Hemraj and on the basis of statement of co-accused Sonu @ Prakash, the present petitioner was implicated in the present case. The main accused Hemraj and co-accused Sonu @ Prakash have already been enlarged on bail by Coordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 09.01.2025 and 04.02.2026. Nothing has been recovered from the petitioner and offences pressed against the petitioner is under 8/29 of NDPS Act. There is no previous case registered against the petitioner under the NDPS Act. The applicant has been in judicial custody since since 04.01.2026

Hence, keeping in view of the fact that conclusion of the trial of the case is likely to take time and the prosecution has not shown any apprehension of the applicant fleeing away from justice, in case he is enlarged on bail; I deem it just and proper to grant bail to the applicant under Section 483 of BNSS.

Accordingly, the bail application under Section 483 BNSS (439 Cr.P.C.) is allowed and it is ordered that the accused-applicant Rakesh Kumar Verma S/o Vinod Kumar arrested in connection with aforesaid FIR shall be enlarged on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned lower court for his appearance before the court concerned on all the dates of hearing as and when called upon to do so.
