-----Respondent

Parties through counsel.

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJEEV PRAKASH SHARMA

Judgment / Order

10/02/2017

The issue involved in this case can be resolved if the Government examines the matters at its own level and is ready to reduce the burden of litigation pending before this Court. The issue stands already decided by earlier judgments passed by this Court from time to time.

The Counsel for the petitioner also agree that he would present himself before the National Lok Adalat which is to be convened on 11.02.2017 and after discussing that their clients tried to get the matter sorted out amicably in the spirit of Lok Adalat.

Learned Government Counsels also shall appraise their officer incharge to be ready before the Lok Adalat with their amicable offer to the petitioners. It may resolve the issues.

Let the matter come up on 11.02.2017 before the National Lok Adalat.

Copy of this order be sent to the office of Advocate General and the Additional Advocate Generals for necessary action.
