Order

27/03/2026

1. The petitioner herein, inter alia, seeks a direction commanding respondents to entertain the appeal and also condone the delay and allow the filing of appeal against the impugned order dated 26.05.2023 (Annexure-4), passed by the Joint Commissioner, whereby GST demand of Rs.83,47,248/- for Financial Years 2018-19, 2019-20 and 2020-21 was raised on the account of wrongful availment of Input Tax Credit by the petitioner. The appeal against the said order could not per force be filed before the Appellate Authority as the online status of the appeal would reveal that the same is time-barred. The petitioner is thus left remediless. Hence, the petitioner, without availing the remedy of appeal, has preferred this instant writ petition.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is not well-equipped to cope with the augmentation of digital assessment and as such, the mobile number and login credentials of the GSTN portal were solely with the accountant of the petitioner. Due to failure of adequate communication between the accountant and the petitioner, the Show Cause Notices dated 26.05.2023, along with other reminders, were never received by the petitioner/assessee. Consequently, owing to non-service of the said notices and reminders upon the petitioner, it was unable to prefer a timely response.

2.1 Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the delay in filing the present appeal has occurred due to circumstances beyond the control of the petitioner. The appeal against the impugned Orders-in-Original dated 26.05.2023 could not be filed within the prescribed limitation period as stipulated under the statutory provisions, which required the same to be filed within a period of three months, along with a further condonable period of one month. The delay in filing the present appeal is neither wilful nor deliberate.

2.2 It is further submitted that the petitioner firm has never availed any wrongful Input Tax Credit for the period from April 2019 to March 2022 and has at all times acted bona fide and in compliance with the provisions of law. The delay in filing the present appeal is, therefore, neither intentional nor deliberate but occurred due to circumstances beyond the control of the petitioner, and in the interest of justice, the same deserves to be condoned.

3. In the aforesaid backdrop, we have heard the learned counsels for the parties and perused the record.

4. Learned Counsel for the petitioner, relying on the various Division Bench judgments of this very Court in M/s M R Traders v. UOI¹, M/s Molana Construction Company v. Central Goods and Service Tax Department & Ors², Man Singh Tanwar v. Commissioner, Central goods and Services Tax Department & Ors.³, RPC PSIPL JV Vs. State of Rajasthan & Ors⁴ and RPC PSIPL JV Vs. State of Rajasthan & Ors⁵ argues that sufficient cause of delay in filing the appeal due to circumstances beyond control has been shown and thus appeal be directed to be considered on merits after condoning the delay by this Court.

³ D.B. CWP 14658/2024

⁴ D.B. CWP 7260/2025

⁵ D.B. CWP 11794/2025

5. Learned counsels for the respondents oppose the above submission and contends that the impugned order has rightly been passed and appeal is now barred by limitation.

6. Having heard, as above, it transpires that while it is true that the Appellate Authority is bound by the statutory provisions of limitation provided under Section 107 of the RGST/CGST Act, 2017, however, considering the reasons owing to which the petitioner could not submit its appeal within the stipulated time, being beyond its control, non-adjudication of appeal on merits would cause grave injury and prejudice to the petitioner.

7. In the judgments cited above, this Court, while allowing the writ petitions, have issued directions to entertain the appeal on merits.

8. In the premise, following the consistent view as already taken by this Court, ibid, we allow the present writ petition to the extent of condoning the delay in filing of the appeal by the petitioner.

9. Accordingly, the Appellate Authority is directed to now entertain the appeal of the petitioner and adjudicate the same on merits.

10. Before parting, we may also hasten to add that as regards to challenge the validity of Section 107(4) of the CGST Act, 2017 read with Notification No. 53/2023 dated 02.11.2023 issued by Director, Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs and in view of the aforesaid order passed by this Court, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the said challenge is not being pressed in the present matter, with liberty to raise and pursue the issue in appropriate proceedings. The issue qua the vires of the same is thus left open to be adjudicated in appropriate proceedings in future.

11. Stay petition and all pending application(s), if any, stand(s) disposed of.
