Order

27/03/2026

I.A. No.01/2025:

1. The matter comes upon an application (I.A. No.01/2025) filed under Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1963.
2. For the reasons mentioned the application, the same is allowed. The delay of 101 days in filing the present appeal is hereby condoned.
3. Learned counsel for the parties jointly submit that the issue is covered by the judgment passed by this Court in D.B. Special Appeal (Writ) No.591/2025, State of Rajasthan & Ors. v. Neelisha Rathore., which is reads as follows:-

"1. Heard on prayer for condonation of delay in filing the appeal.

2. An application under Section 5 of the Limitation Act has been filed for condonation of delay of 94 days in filing of the appeal by the appellants.

4. For the reasons mentioned in the application, the same is allowed.

4. Delay in filing the appeal is hereby condoned. 5. Heard on admission.

5. Learned counsel for the State would vehemently argue and submit that even though the respondent failed to submit the application form strictly in accordance with proforma prescribed under the advertisement particularly omitting the details required under Column 8 regarding working or posting during the COVID 19 period from 22.03.2020 to 13.02.2022, we find that the relevant information in this regard was contained in the application form and supported by a certificate. Therefore, the view taken by learned Single Judge that there was a substantial compliance with the requirement of submitting the necessary information for the purpose of claiming bonus marks, does not suffer from any flaw more so since the period during which the respondent worked, as supported by the certificate is not under dispute and that admittedly belongs to the Covid-19 period as mentioned in the bonus clause as well as in the proforma of the application.

6. Accordingly, the present appeal is dismissed.

7. All pending applications stand disposed of."

4. In light of such joint submission, the present Special Appeal (Writ) is dismissed in the same terms.
