Order

08/05/2026

This application for bail under Section 483 BNSS (439 Cr.P.C.) has been filed by the petitioner who has been arrested in connection with F.I.R. No.03/2025 registered at Police Station Cyber Police Station, District Didwana-Kuchaman, for offences under Sections 318(4), 316(2), 308(2), 111(2) of BNS and Section 66-D of IT Act.

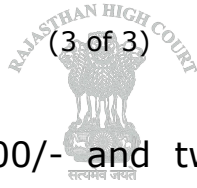

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the offences alleged to have been committed by the petitioner are triable by court of Magistrate and the challan has already been filed and he is no more required for investigation. Learned counsel submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody since 25.02.2026 and the trial of the case will take sufficiently long time, therefore, the benefit of bail may be granted to the accused-petitioner.

Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the bail application.

Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the material available on record. The allegations against the petitioner are that he got the amount transferred from the complainant on the pretext of sending her ₹15 lakhs dirham. The petitioner has been arrested, and the investigation qua him is complete. The charge-sheet has already been filed. The offences alleged against the petitioner are triable by a Court of Magistrate, and the antecedents of the petitioner are stated to be clean. The learned trial Court rejected the bail application on the ground that the investigation was still underway; however, subsequently, the charge-sheet has been filed on 15.04.2026.

Having considered the rival submissions, facts and circumstances of the case; the alleged offences are triable by a Magistrate; keeping in view of the fact that conclusion of the trial of the case is likely to take time and the prosecution has not shown any apprehension of the petitioner fleeing away from justice, in case he is enlarged on bail; but, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, I deem it just and proper to grant bail to the petitioner under Section 483 of BNSS.

Consequently, the bail application under Section 483 BNSS (439 Cr.P.C.) is allowed. It is ordered that the accused-petitioner Ibrahim Alam S/o Mohammad Hisab Miya arrested in connection with FIR No.03/2025 registered at Police Station Cyber Police Station, District Didwana-Kuchaman, shall be released on bail, if not wanted in any other case, provided he furnishes a
