1. The instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India has been filed by the petitioner seeking the following reliefs:-

"It is, therefore, most respectfully prayed that the writ petition filed by the petitioner may kindly be allowed and (1) By an appropriate writ, order or direction, the respondent may kindly be directed to de-freeze the bank HDFC Bank through its Manager, address- Ground Floor, Nayaapura, Phalodi By Pass Road, Osian, District Jodhpur, Rajasthan branch Saving account No. 50100474249185 IFSC Code HDFC0006561 of the petitioner's name SOHAN RAM.

(ii) By an appropriate writ, order or direction, the respondent may kindly be directed to not freeze the bank account of the petitioner in future without prior notice.

(iii) By an appropriate writ, order or direction there respondents are directed to take cognizance in remitting the money back to the petitioner.

(iv) Any other order or direction, which this Hon'ble Court deem just fit and proper be passed in favour of the petitioner."

2. Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court deems it just and proper to dispose of this writ petition with a direction to the HDFC Bank - respondent to keep the disputed amount (the amount which was transferred illegally in the bank account of the petitioner) frozen and allow the petitioner to make transactions from his bank account from the remaining balance.

3. It is further made clear that in case, the respondent – Bank has not received the information regarding the exact figure of the disputed amount, which the Investigating Officer/Police alleges to be receipt(s) of the offence, the bank shall send a communication to the concerned Investigating Officer/Police, to indicate the amount to be earmarked for lien, while endorsing a copy of the instant order.

4. Upon receipt of such communication/letter, the concerned Investigating Officer/Police shall be under an obligation to apprise the respondent - Bank about the amount to be kept in lien, within a period of seven days of receiving the communication from the respondent - Bank. The respondent – bank shall thereafter do the needful as directed herein above.

5. It is further made clear that in case, the respondent-Bank does not receive any reply from the concerned Investigating Officer/Police, then it shall be duty bound to act in accordance with the instant order.

6. Stay petition as well as all pending application, if any, stand disposed of.
