HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE FARJAND ALI

28/03/2026

1. The instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India has been filed in relation to a service matter, wherein the petitioners seek grant of notional pay fixation and consequential service benefits from the date persons junior to them were appointed, including re-fixation of pay, seniority and other attendant benefits, and challenge the denial of such benefits on the ground of completion of probation.
2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioners.
3. After arguing the matter at some length, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that he does not wish to press the present writ petition at this stage and seeks liberty for the petitioners to submit a comprehensive representation before the competent authority of the respondent department.
4. In view of the submission so made, the present writ petition is dismissed as not pressed, with liberty as prayed for.
5. It is directed that in the event the petitioners submit a detailed representation before the competent authority within a period of four weeks from today, the same shall be considered and decided objectively, strictly in accordance with law, by passing a reasoned and speaking order, within a period of sixty days from the date of receipt of such representation. The decision so taken shall be communicated to the petitioners forthwith.

6. It is made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the case and all issues are left open to be considered by the competent authority.

7. In case the grievance of the petitioners still persists, they shall be at liberty to avail appropriate remedy in accordance with law.

8. The writ petition stands disposed of accordingly.
