Order

23/04/2026

1. None present for the petitioner.
2. If the threat perception still persist with the petitioner, they may approach to the concerned Superintendent of Police and may file a detailed representation seeking protection to their life and liberty. Upon doing so, it is expected from Commissioner of Police that they would go through it minutely and if need may arise, would make interaction with the petitioner and upon perceiving threat to their life or liberty he would pass appropriate and suitable orders to protect them from any harm which is apprehended to be caused by the private respondents by taking the law in their hands.

3. Accordingly, the instant petition is disposed of.
