JUSTICE DINESH MEHTA

Order

25/03/2025

1. Learned Advocate General at the outset expressed unconditional apology on behalf of the contemnor – respondent no.4 and placed before the Court the chronological events alongwith his affidavit.
2. Having gone through the events and affidavit, this Court feels that in spite of the negligence exhibited and delay caused in complying with the order of this Court and keeping aside whatever has been observed on the previous hearing, it would be in the fitness of things that the unconditional apology, which has been tendered by the contemnor (Mr. Pratap Singh) be taken into consideration, as at the end of the day, the order passed by this Court has been complied with.

3. Hence, while showing a restraint; refraining from passing any order of imprisonment or infliction of fine, the apology is accepted - the contemnor, Mr. Pratap Singh is discharged.

4. Mr. Sanjeet Purohit, learned counsel for the petitioner at this stage submitted that the order dated 20.03.2025, which the respondent/State authorities have passed is not in conformity with law.

5. Be that as it may. The issue as to whether the order dated 20.03.2025 passed by the State authorities is in accordance with the law or not shall be considered on the next date of hearing, on which date Mr. Pratap Singh or any other respondents need not remain present.

6. List this case on 28.04.2025, as jointly prayed.
