1. Heard and perused the material available on record.
2. The instant bail application has been filed by petitioner under Section 483 B.N.S.S. in connection with FIR No.61/2025 dated 07.03.2025 registered at Police Station Mata Ka Than, District Jodhpur for the offences under Sections 64(2)(M), 69, 89 of BNS.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case while alleging that he committed rape upon the complainant. He also submits that the petitioner is 21 years old and the complainant is a mature lady of 22 years and are having consensual relationship. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the parties have entered into compromise and the parties are willing to marry each other. He also submits that as soon as the petitioner is enlarged on bail, he will get married to the complainant and the complainant is also inclined to marry him. He further submits that the compromise is taken on record. He placed reliance on the following judgments Gaurav Vs. State of Rajasthan, S.B.Crl.MB No.12304/2021; Narain Lal Vs. State of Rajasthan, S.B.Crl.MB No.3024/2023; Mohammad Waris vs. State of Rajasthan, S.B.Crl.MB 9176/2023; Mohan Ram vs. State of Rajasthan, S.B.Crl.MB No. 9673/2023.

4. Learned counsel for the complainant also submits that the complainant is willing to marry the petitioner and does not want to pursue the criminal proceedings initiated against him as the parties have entered into compromise. He also submits that the complainant does not have any objection if the petitioner is enlarged on bail.

5. Learned Public Prosecutor opposes the bail application however, is not in a position to refute that the parties have arrived at a compromise and the parties are willing to marry each other.

6. After carefully considering the arguments advanced by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the learned Public Prosecutor and learned counsel for the complainant, judgment cited at bar, and looking to the facts and circumstances of the case, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the present petitioner behind the bars for further period till disposal of the case and also looking to the possibility that the trial may take long time to conclude, this Court deems it just and proper to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

7. Accordingly, the bail application under Section 483 B.N.S.S. is allowed and it is ordered that the accused-petitioner – Harsh Naval S/o Suresh Kumar Naval, arrested in relation to FIR No.61/2025 dated 07.03.2025 registered at Police Station Mata Ka Than, District Jodhpur shall be enlarged on bail provided he furnishes a personal bond each in sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial Judge for their appearance before the Court concerned on all the dates of hearing as and when called upon to do so.
