Learned counsel for the parties jointly submitted that the controversy involved in the present case is squarely covered by the order dated 04.08.2023 passed by the co-ordinate Bench of this Court in bunch of writ petitions led by S.B. Civil Writ Petition No.4372/2018 titled as 'Prem Shankar Ameta v. State of Rajasthan & Ors.'

In view of the aforesaid joint submissions made at Bar by the learned counsel for the parties, the present writ petition is allowed with the following directions as given in the case of Prem

Shankar Ameta (supra):-

“21. For what has been discussed herein above, all the captioned writ petitions (which involve identical facts narrated hereinabove) are hereby allowed.

22. The respondents are directed to confer the benefits of selection grade/ACP to the petitioners on completion of 9-18-27 years of service w.e.f. the date of their initial appointment as Sub-Nakedar in their respective municipalities.

23. The respondents shall rework or calculate the benefits of selection grade/ACP already granted to the petitioners, making the same effective from their initial date of appointment.

24. While carrying out such exercise, the respondents shall be free to examine individual case and to ascertain as to whether the appointment of the petitioner(s) was against vacant post and a regular pay scale was granted to them or not and if given from which date it was given.

25. Necessary exercise be done within a period of three months from today and such calculation be intimated to the petitioners. After calculation has been made, it will be required of the respondent-State to pay the consequential benefit/amount to the petitioners within a period of three months therefrom.

26. All these present writ petitions stand allowed, accordingly.”

Stay petition and all pending applications stand disposed of.
