Order

03/12/2024

I.A. No.04/2024:-

1. Upon hearing Mr. Pradeep Singh Khichi, learned counsel for the applicant, this Court does not find that applicant's interest in any manner is involved, much or less, directly.
2. The application stands dismissed.

S.B. Civil Writ Petition No.4386/2016:-

1. The essential dispute between the petitioners and respondent Nos.5 to 7 is inter-se seniority.
2. It is informed that as of today, there are 6 vacant posts of Executive Engineer (Communications). As against this, there are 4 petitioners and 3 respondents (i.e. No.5 to 7), out of which, one has passed away.

3. Considering this factual matrix, this Court is of the view that if the case of the petitioners so also respondents are considered for promotion, it will not be detrimental to anybody's interest.
4. The interim order dated 30.05.2017 passed by this Court, is thus, modified by directing the respondents to undertake exercise of promotion and consider case of the petitioners so also the private respondents in accordance with law.
5. Needless to observe that issue of their inter-se seniority shall remain subject to the outcome of the writ petition.
