It is contended by learned counsel for the petitioner that, at the time of the accident, the deceased was holding a learner's licence. Learned counsel has drawn the attention of this Court to Rule 3 of the Central Motor Vehicles Rules, 1989, which provides that a person holding a learner's licence shall not drive any motor vehicle unless he is accompanied by a person duly licenced to drive the vehicle, and the vehicle carries "L" plates both at the front and rear sides of the vehicle.

Learned counsel further submits that the said condition was not duly complied with, as the deceased was accompanied by a person, who was not holding any valid permanent licence. Despite the same, the learned Permanent Lok Adalat has wrongly interpreted the aforesaid provision and passed the impugned award.

Issue notice, returnable within a period of six weeks.

In the meanwhile and till the next date of hearing, the effect and operation of the award dated 17.02.2026 passed by the learned Permanent Lok Adalat, Merta, District Nagaur in PLA Case No.33/2025 shall remain stayed.
