Order

21/04/2026

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was although granted bail by the learned trial Court upon the condition of depositing 20% of the compensation under Section 148-A of the N.I. Act. He submits that due to bad financial condition, the petitioner has not been able to deposit the amount and hence he has been sent to judicial custody and he is behind the bars since 01.04.2026.

Learned counsel further submits that the appeal is pending; since the petitioner's financial condition is not good and only because he is unable to deposit 20% of the amount, he cannot be sent behind the bars. He further submits that otherwise also the petitioner is ready and willing to deposit the amount if certain time is granted to him for depositing the same.

This Court has considered the arguments as well as the order dated 17.04.2026 by which the application of extension of time has been rejected by the learned trial Court.

This Court finds that the appeal the of petitioner is pending and due to the condition imposed by the learned trial Court, he has been sent to the judicial custody. The petitioner is willing to deposit the amount in question and hence this Court deems it appropriate to direct that the petitioner be released from the custody if he deposits 10% of the amount. After his release, the petitioner is directed to deposit the remaining 10% amount on or before 30.05.2026. If the petitioner fails to deposit the second installment, he shall be liable to sent behind the bars.

With the aforesaid observations, the present criminal misc. petition is allowed.
