1. The petitioner, who has been named as an accused in number of FIRs', bearing FIR No.37/2025, PS Shambhupura, Chittorgarh and FIR No.206/2023, PS Raas, Beawar (Pali) and consequentially in all other FIRs/ complainants/ cases has preferred the instant criminal writ petition under article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking release in all the matters collectively for a limited period of 30 days for enabling him to take care of his ailing father, who is suffering from serious heart disease.

2. It is averred in the writ petition that wife of the petitioner is aged about 29 years and is currently suffering from a severe and life-threatening cardiac condition. She is admitted at hospital and her treatment is urgently underway at Mathuradas Mathur Hospital (MDMH), Jodhpur. The doctors have advised immediate specialized intervention and surgery. She requires continuous specialized monitoring, bedside care and frequent follow-ups which is impossible to manage without the physical and logistical support of her husband. In these circumstances, the presence of the petitioner is essential for taking care of his father. Thus, it is prayed that the petitioner may be released on temporary bail in all the matters collectively.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor has opposed the prayer made by the petitioner.

4. Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case and upon going through the medical record of the father of the petitioner annexed with the writ petition and taking a humanitarian view of the matter, the instant writ petition is allowed and it is ordered that the petitioner shall be released on temporary bail in all the matters mentioned in the annexed Schedules collectively and any other case, which remains to be mentioned in the Schedules, for a period of 10 days from the date of his actual physical release upon furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.5,00,000/- and two sound and solvent sureties of Rs.5,00,000/- each (one of which shall be of any of the family member of the petitioner) to the satisfaction of the concerned

Superintendent (or other competent jail authority) of the District Jail. The concerned Jail authority shall be at liberty to impose any other usual terms and conditions for surrender of the petitioner. The petitioner shall surrender before the concerned Superintendent Central Jail in the morning of the next day of completion of the period of temporary bail.

5. In view of the multiplicity of FIRs registered against the petitioner and the interim protection granted by this Court it would be just, fair and in the interest of justice to direct the concerned Superintendent of Police to provide a suitable police guard to the petitioner. Accordingly, the concerned Superintendent of Police is directed to do the needful.
