Order

05/05/2026

This application for bail under Section 483 of the BNSS has been filed by the petitioner, who has been arrested in connection with FIR No. 112/2022 registered at Police Station Sindhari, District Barmer, for offences under Sections 447, 342, 365 and 302/120-B of the IPC.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned Public Prosecutor, as well as learned counsel for the complainant. Perused the material available on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the co-accused has already been enlarged on bail by a co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 08.01.2026 passed in S.B. Cr. Misc. Petition No. 13158/2025 on the ground of delay in trial. It is contended that the case of the present petitioner is not distinguishable from that of the co-accused, as similar allegations of inflicting injuries have been levelled against both. It is further submitted that the petitioner has been in custody for more than three and a half years and the trial is likely to take considerable time to conclude; therefore, the benefit of bail may be granted.

Per contra, learned Public Prosecutor as well as learned counsel for the complainant opposed the bail application.

Having considered the rival submissions and the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account that the co-accused has already been granted bail by a co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 08.01.2026; that the case of the present petitioner is not distinguishable from that of the said co-accused; that the petitioner has been in custody for a considerable period; that the trial is likely to take time; and that no specific apprehension has been expressed by the prosecution regarding the petitioner absconding or tampering with evidence, this Court deems it just and proper to grant bail to the petitioner, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case.

Accordingly, the bail application under Section 483 of the BNSS is allowed.

It is ordered that the accused-petitioner, Naranaram S/o Shri Khumaram, arrested in connection with FIR No. 112/2022 registered at Police Station Sindhari, District Barmer, shall be released on bail, if not required in any other case, upon furnishing a personal bond of Rs. 50,000/- and two sureties of Rs. 25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned trial court, for his appearance before the Court on each and every date of hearing and as and when called upon to do so till the conclusion of the trial.
