08/05/2026

It is contended by learned counsel for the petitioner that the certified copy of the title document has been filed and the person concerned, being the Legal Advisor of the company, is competent to file the writ petition. It is, therefore, submitted that the defect pointed out by the office deserves to be overruled.

In view of the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner, the defects as pointed out by the office are overruled.

Issue notice.

In the meanwhile, proceedings before the learned trial Court to continue, however, no final order shall be passed.
