HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE FARJAND ALI

Order

27/04/2026

1. The present application has been filed on behalf of the applicant under Section 389 Cr.P.C. (Section 430 BNSS) seeking temporary suspension of sentence on the ground of marriage of his cousin sister, which is stated to be scheduled on 30.04.2026.
2. While the Court is not oblivious to the personal circumstances pleaded, it is to be noted that the ground urged is not of such compelling or exceptional nature which would warrant exercise of discretion in favour of temporary suspension of sentence, particularly in a case arising out of conviction under the NDPS Act. The relationship projected is that of a cousin sister, and no material has been placed on record to substantiate the assertion that the presence of the applicant is indispensable or that no other family member is available to perform the necessary arrangements.

3. Further, the application does not disclose any emergent or unavoidable circumstance which would justify temporary release of the applicant. Grant of temporary suspension of sentence is a discretionary relief and is to be exercised sparingly and only in cases where sufficient and cogent grounds are made out. In the present case, the reasons assigned do not satisfy the threshold required for such indulgence.

4. In view of the above, this Court is not inclined to grant temporary suspension of sentence to the applicant.

5. Accordingly, the application is dismissed.
