Order

29/04/2026

1. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners, who were holding the positions of Chairmen in the Doodh Utpadak Sahakari Sang, upon completion of the tenure of the cooperative societies, have already requested the respondents to conduct elections. However, without any valid reasons, no steps have been taken by the respondents–Cooperative Department to hold such elections.
2. Learned counsel further submitted that the petitioners are in no way responsible for the delay in conducting the elections of the cooperative societies. It was contended that, on the one hand, the respondents–Cooperative Department has failed to conduct elections for reasons best known to it, while on the other hand, it has taken a decision to remove the petitioners from the Chairmanship of the concerned cooperative societies and to appoint administrators to look after their affairs.
3. Learned counsel submitted that the decision of the respondents–Cooperative Department to appoint administrators is wholly illegal and arbitrary. It was further contended that there exists no reason or justification for such appointment, particularly when the delay in conducting elections is not attributable to the petitioners.
4. The matter requires consideration.
5. Issue notice. Issue notice of the stay application as well.
6. In the meanwhile, and till the next date of hearing, the respondents–Cooperative Department are restrained from appointing administrators in the Zila Doodh Utpadak Sang whose terms have expired. However, the respondents shall be at liberty to initiate the process for conducting elections in the said cooperative societies.
