Order

07/05/2026

1. The present bail application has been preferred under Section 483 B.N.S.S., 2023, on behalf of the petitioner in connection with the FIR No.52/2013 registered at Police Station Kalyanpur, District Barmer for the Offences under Sections 143, 447, 307 and 323 of IPC and further the offences added, if any u/s 147, 148, 327 and 307/120 of IPC.
2. Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that earlier bail was granted to the petitioner by the learned Trial Court and during the currency of his bail, the petitioner was employed as a labourer at an outstation to support his family and due to unforeseen circumstances and a lack of communication, he was unable to appear before the learned Trial Court on the scheduled hearing dates. Consequently, his bail bond was confiscated on 04.11.2024 and immediately upon gaining knowledge of the same, the petitioner voluntarily surrendered before the learned Trial Court on 19.02.2026 and he is in judicial custody since then. Learned counsel assures this Court that in future, the petitioner will remain present on each and every date of the case before the learned trial court and if he again forfeits the bail bond then the indulgence of bail may not be extended to the petitioner.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor vehemently opposes the submissions of learned counsel for the petitioner and prays for dismissal of the present bail application.

4. Heard and considered the submissions and material available on record.

5. Looking to the facts and circumstances of the case, more particularly that on an earlier occasion, bail was granted to the petitioner by the learned Trial Court but due to unforeseen circumstances and a lack of communication, the petitioner failed to appear before the learned Trial Court, accordingly his bail bond was forfeited and he surrendered himself before the learned Trial Court on 19.02.2026 and the petitioner is in judicial custody since then, thus, I deem it just and proper to grant one more opportunity to the petitioner, subject to the condition that he will appear before the learned trial court on each and every date of hearing, failing which the Public Prosecutor will be at liberty to file an application for cancellation of the bail.

6. Accordingly, this bail application filed under Section 483B.N.S.S., 2023 is allowed and it is ordered that the accused-Vishnu Nain S/o Javeeri Lal, shall be enlarged on bail, if not wanted in any other case, provided he furnishes a personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sureties of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court for his appearance before the court concerned on all the dates of hearing and as and when called upon to do so.

7. The petitioner shall also not tamper with any evidence nor would he directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the court or any police officer.

8. It is made it clear that the observations made herein above are only for deciding the present bail application without commenting on the merits/de-merits of the case, and shall not influence the trial of the case in any manner.
