Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that Clause 5 of General Guidelines and Rules of PTET, 2021 is contrary to Para 4.16 of the University Grants Commission Guidelines of the year 2004. It is submitted that clause 5 of the above policy provides that 95% of seats will be filled by the domicile of State of Rajasthan and only 5% seats will be filled by the candidates from other States. It is argued that the petitioner-university was established under the Act of 2008 and is not governed by the condition laid down by the respondent-state. It is also submitted that the respondents while issuing guidelines for PTET in the year 2020 has also imposed a similar condition and this Court in SBCWP No.4450/2020 filed on behalf of the petitioner has issued notices and passed the interim order as well.

Issue notice. Issue notice of stay application also, returnable in four weeks.

Meanwhile, the condition laid down under Clause 5 of the guidelines of PTET, 2021 shall not operate against the petitioner.

Connect with SBCWP No.4450/2020.
