Order

07/07/2025

Mr. Sanjay Jhawar, the learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioner-Company states that the main issue involved in this writ petition is whether the order of assessment could have been passed without adhering to the rules of natural justice.

2. The learned Senior Counsel for the petitioner-Company has apprised this Court that a similar issue is involved in other two writ petitions filed by the petitioner-Company pertaining to two different assessment years.

3. Tag along with D.B. Civil Writ Petition Nos.15089 of 2024 & 3943 of 2025 and to be listed on 30th July 2025 under the heading of 'final disposal'.

4. Reply, if any, may be filed before the next date of hearing.
