03/07/2026

1. This application for bail has been filed by the petitioner under Section 483 of BNSS (old Section 439 of Cr.P.C.). The requisite details of the matter are tabulated herein below:

| S.No. | Particulars of the Case     |                              |
|-------|-----------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1.    | FIR Number                  | 169/2022                     |
| 2.    | Date of lodging FIR         | 15.11.2022                   |
| 3.    | Concerned Police Station    | Shambhugarh                  |
| 4.    | District                    | Bhilwara                     |
| 5.    | Offences alleged in the FIR | Sections 457 and 380 of IPC. |
| 6.    | Offences added, if any      | Section 461 of IPC.          |

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case and false allegations have been levelled against him. Co-accused-Pawan @ Handa, Ajay Prakash @ Raju, Bijendra Singh @ Vijendra Singh, Tejpal Singh @

Kalu and Ramswarup Singh have been granted bail by this Court. The role assigned to the present petitioner in the present crime is not distinguishable in any manner from the roles assigned to other co-accused persons. The petitioner is in judicial custody since 22.08.2024 and the trial will take sufficiently long time, therefore, he deserves to be enlarged on bail.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor vehemently opposes this bail application and submits that looking to 36 criminal antecedents against the petitioner, he may not be enlarged on bail. However, he is not in a position to refute the fact that other co-accused persons have been enlarged on bail.

4. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.

5. Having considered the rival submissions, facts and circumstances of this case and after perusing the challan papers so also considering the fact that co-accused persons have already been enlarged on bail; the role assigned to the present petitioner in the present crime is not distinguishable in any manner from the role assigned to other co-accused persons; and that petitioner is in judicial custody since 22.08.2024, in the considered opinion of this Court, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner behind the bars for an indefinite period as the trial will take sufficiently long time. Thus, without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, this Court is of the opinion that the bail application filed by the petitioner deserves to be accepted.

6. Accordingly, the bail application filed under Section 483 of BNSS is allowed. It is ordered that petitioner- Amar Singh Alias

Faniya S/o Shri Mahaveer Prasad Meena, shall be released on bail in connection with the aforesaid FIR; provided he executes personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sound and solvent sureties of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of learned trial Court for his appearance before that court on each and every date of hearing and whenever called upon to do so till the completion of the trial.

7. It is however, made clear that findings recorded/observations made above are for limited purposes of adjudication of bail application. The trial court shall not get prejudiced by the same.
