Order

28/04/2026

1. An application has been filed on behalf of the applicant-appellant seeking permission to mark his presence in the pending appeal. It is submitted that though the sentence had earlier been suspended by this Court, the applicant could not appear on the dates fixed due to unavoidable circumstances and his absence was not deliberate; he undertakes to remain present as and when directed.
2. Having considered the submissions and perused the record, it is apparent that despite issuance of bailable and non-bailable warrants on multiple occasions, the applicant remained absent. However, in view of the explanation offered and the undertaking given, this Court deems it appropriate to grant one final opportunity in the interest of justice.

3. Accordingly, the application is allowed. The applicant, present today and identified by his counsel, is permitted to mark his presence today and the warrants issued against him shall stand recalled, subject to the condition that he shall abide by the conditions of the order of suspension of sentence. It is made clear that any further default shall entail strict coercive action in accordance with law.

4. Office to proceed.
