This application for bail has been filed by the petitioner under Section 483 of BNSS (old Section 439 of Cr.P.C.). The requisite details of the matter are tabulated herein below:

| S.No. | Particulars of the Case     |                            |
|-------|-----------------------------|----------------------------|

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the case and false allegations have been levelled against him. He submits that petitioner has been arrested merely on the ground that he was earlier Director of the Society and has allegedly embezzled certain amount. While referring to the charge-sheet, he submits that petitioner has been named in the charge-sheet however, there is no conclusion based on which petitioner could be connected with the alleged crime. He further submits that offences alleged against the present petitioner are triable by Magistrate and he has no criminal antecedents. The petitioner is in judicial custody since 27.03.2026 and the trial will take sufficiently long time, therefore, he deserves to be enlarged on bail.

3. Learned Public Prosecutor vehemently opposes this bail application however he is not in a position to refute the fact that there is no conclusion in the charge-sheet in order to connect the present petitioner with the crime in question.

4. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Public Prosecutor and perused the material available on record.

5. Having considered the rival submissions, facts and circumstances of this case and after perusing the challan papers so also considering the fact that the offences alleged against the present petitioner are triable by Magistrate and there are no criminal antecedents against the present petitioner; and the charge-sheet nowhere indicates prima facie role of present petitioner in the crime in question, in the considered opinion of this Court, no fruitful purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner behind the bars for an indefinite period as the trial will take sufficiently long time. Thus, without expressing any opinion on merits/demerits of the case, this Court is of the opinion that the bail application filed by the petitioner deserves to be accepted.

6. Accordingly, the bail application filed under Section 483 of BNSS is allowed. It is ordered that petitioner- Ravindra S/o Shyamlal shall be released on bail in connection with the aforesaid FIR; provided he executes personal bond in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with two sound and solvent sureties of Rs.25,000/- each to the satisfaction of learned trial Court for his appearance before that court on each and every date of hearing and whenever called upon to do so till the completion of the trial.

7. It is however, made clear that findings recorded/observations made above are for limited purposes of adjudication of bail application. The trial court shall not get prejudiced by the same.
