Order

09/02/2026

1. Heard learned counsel appearing for the State.
2. The present appeal preferred by the State is 716 days' time barred and, therefore, an application under Section 5 of the Limitation Act has been filed.
3. Learned Additional Advocate General very fairly submits that the controversy involved in the present case was decided by this Court vide a judgment dated 22.01.2020 rendered in the case of State of Rajasthan & Ors. Vs. Smt. Kanta Sharan & Anr. (D.B. Special Appeal (Writ) No.1866/2018). He further submits that the facts in the present case are not distinguishable from the case of Smt. Kanta Sharan (supra).

4. In view of the statement made before this Court, we are not inclined to condone the delay of 716 days' and on the merits of the matter also, the controversy has been set at rest by the Division Bench of this Court. Therefore, the application preferred under Section 5 of the Limitation Act as well as the appeal have no force and the same are hereby dismissed.

5. The stay application as well as other pending misc. applications, if any, stand disposed of accordingly.
