1. The matter comes up on an application seeking modification of the order dated 28.04.2026 whereby temporary release of the petitioner was ordered along with suitable police guard.
2. It is submitted that the petitioner is a very indigent person and, considering his penurious condition, he is not in a position to bear the expenses likely to be incurred towards payment of allowances to the police personnel deputed as guard.
3. Considering the submissions made with regard to the penurious condition of the petitioner and also taking into account the fact that the wife of the petitioner is presently suffering from a life-threatening cardiac ailment and his presence with her is urgently required, this Court deems it appropriate to allow the application in the aforesaid terms.

4. Accordingly, the application is allowed. The petitioner shall be released in terms of the order dated 28.04.2026. However, the police personnel who may be deputed with him for the aforesaid purpose shall be entitled to receive the requisite allowances from the State authorities.
5. Since the State is under an obligation, being a welfare State, to take into consideration the financial condition of an indigent prisoner, it is directed that the expenses incurred towards deployment of the police guard shall be borne by the State authorities.
6. Rest of the conditions contained in the order dated 28.04.2026 shall remain as it is.
